

CURRICULUM VITAE

Benson Mwaura Njoroge
367 Newton Avenue Apt. #202
Morgantown, WV 26505
Tel. (304) 293-3847 (home)
(304) 685-4436 (Cell)

EDUCATION:

West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV
Master's of Technology Education:(2003-Current)

Kenyatta University, Nairobi, Kenya
Bachelor of Education 1994, Major: Education, Geography & Philosophy and Religious Education.

Afraha High School, Nakuru, Kenya
KACE (A-Level). January, 1989.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of History (Africana Studies Program)
January 2003-Current

- Responsible for teaching two Sections of ASP 220: Introduction to African and African American Studies.
- Administering and grading ASP: 220 examinations.

Designed the Africana Studies Website in conjunction with the WVU
communications: www.wvu.edu/~asp

- Updates and maintains the Africana Studies Website.

Examination officer and Evaluator, Kenya National Examination Council,
Nairobi, Kenya October 2000 – July 2003

- Acted as a resource person and team leader for the evaluation team
- Coordinated the setting of the school internal exams
- Conducted needs assessment and analyzed exams
- Responsible for timetabling of the internal exams

- Being an examination official in charge of internal and external exams in the school.
- Evaluated and scored state administered middle and high school exams
- Assisted with data analysis and research interpretation.
- Assisted with the creation and refining of evaluation rubrics.

School Teacher, Ndururumo High School, Nyahururu, Kenya Jan 1994 – July 2003.

- Taught geography and Religious Education
- Provided instruction utilizing a variety of teaching strategies
- Developed and used various teaching aids and schemes of work in all classes
- Responsible for the organization of the subject throughout the school.
- Designed and implemented teaching strategies to prepare students for qualifying exams administered by the Kenya National Examination Council.
- Collaborated with other teachers in curricular and extra-curricular activities
- Member of school’s guidance and counseling committee.

Subject Head Teacher: Ndururumo High School, Nyahururu, Kenya. July 1999– July 2003

- Provided leadership as a subject head teacher and coordinator
- Organized the setting and marking of school examinations in social studies
- Ensured that the curriculum and syllabus was followed to the letter.
- Maintained a weekly record of work for the subject

PROFESSIONAL AWARDS:

- Received first position as best geography teacher in the province.
- Received first position as the top geography instructor from the Ministry of Education, Kenya.
- Received first position as the teacher with the best performance in the Kenya National Examination Council.

RESEARCH SKILLS

- Ability to conduct and analyze research using various research techniques.
- Ability to design research and analyze data using both descriptive.
- Successfully designed, conducted, and interpreted reports from a needs assessment

COMPUTER RELATED SKILLS:

- Ability to use Windows (PC) and O/S (Macintosh) operating systems.
- Well versed with internet browsers.
- Ability to Microsoft related software such as Microsoft Office and Outlook.
- Ability to use the web publishing software such as Macromedia Dreamweaver MX 2004 and Ms FrontPage 2003.

OTHER AREAS OF INTEREST

Fine Art: I have accomplished some pieces of Art Work which have been displaced in various places including:

- An Art painting in Kenyatta University(Kenya)
- An Art painting in Nyahururu ACK Pro-Cathedral

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES:

Dr Robert Maxon

Professor, Department of History
P.O Box 6303
Tel: (304) 293-2421, ext. 5223
Fax: (304) 293-6858
Email: Robert.Maxon@mail.wvu.edu

David L. McCrory
Professor: Technology Education
West Virginia University
PO Box 6122
Morgantown, WV 26506
304-293-2090
e-mail: David.McCrory@mail.wvu.edu